From: Ebe Kartus, ACOC Representative
Subject: Revision to instructions for Adaptations and Revisions (6.27.1.5)

ACOC thanks the Library of Congress for this proposal. ACOC supports the proposal; it achieves its aim and is within the working principles.

However, ACOC does question the need for the second if/and/then statement at 6.27.1.5 and would suggest adding the 'and' statement to the list of instructions on constructing the authorized access point.

6.27.1.5 Adaptations and Revisions

if:

an adaptation or revision of an existing work substantially changes the nature and content of that work

then:

treat the adaptation or revision as a new work.

Apply these instructions on constructing the authorized access point for the new work, as applicable:

one person, family, or corporate body responsible for adapting the work of another creator (see 6.27.1.5.1) more than one person, family, or corporate body responsible for adapting the work of another creator (see 6.27.1.5.2) creators responsible for adapting their own work (see 6.27.1.5.3).

~~if:~~

~~the nature and content of a work has been substantially changed~~

~~—and~~

~~the person, family or corporate body responsible for the adaptation or revision is unknown or uncertain (6.27.1.8)~~

~~then:~~

~~apply the instructions at 6.27.1.8 to construct the authorized access point for the new work.~~
